B. RESERVATION PROCEDURE:

1. Reservations will be accepted 24 hours per day online and from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. daily in the Office. Reservations may be made up to 60 days in advance for a "use period". A "use period" is defined as being fourteen (14) days out of any 30-day period for each unit of undivided interest owned. The 30-day period is defined to run concurrent with a calendar month. There will be a $2.00 per night reservation fee assessed when a reservation is confirmed. (See B.8. Cancellations and Changes for additional information.) (See section E for further information on Rental Unit reservations.)

2. A camping unit (camper or tent) may remain on one site for a maximum of 14 days. Exceptions may be made for inclement weather or holiday periods but only as approved by the Resort Office.

3. The "use period" may be used by the owner in daily, weekly, or other increments. However, no owner may reserve or occupy the same site more than once during any given 60-day period regardless of the units of undivided interest owned. This will give all owners the opportunity to use the site.

4. No camping site may be used or occupied by any owner unless and until such owner has complied with the reservation procedure outlined above. Items may not be moved to another site until the day of approved reservation date. Use of other camping sites for parking vehicles must be approved and a permit issued by the Resort Office or Security.

5. No reservation will be accepted if the owner owes any assessment or charges to the Resort.

6.. Upon reserving a "use period" as outlined above, the time reserved is charged against the owner's allotted time. If an owner has a guest(s) using a site other than the site being used by the owner, then that time used by the guest is charged against that owner's "use period". If an owner has one undivided interest and is on site and a guest or joint owner uses another site, the extra site for a guest or other owner may be reserved up to 14 days in advance of their arrival. If an owner or guest(s) use a rental, the prevailing rental rate will be charged. If the owner has more than one undivided interest, then the second site may be reserved 60 days in advance in the owner's name for the guest. An owner may not use his/her Unit number to make a reservation for another owner. An owner may have an owner as a guest(s) on site in their RV/Tent; however, the owner must be present at the RV/Tent site during the owner-guest entire visit. Owner's guest who are also owners must sign in as guest upon arrival. An owner or any individual who owes any fees/fines to the Resort, cannot be a guest of another owner or use the facilities as a day guest until all monies are paid in full. 7. The owner must sign in anyone who is to occupy a site when the owner will not be staying on the site, except a son or daughter, 21 years of age or older, mother or father of the owner. In the event one of these parents or children will be occupying the site, the owner will make the reservation and obtain an authorization form from the office, properly complete the form and the parent or child will bring the form when they check in.

8. Cancellations/Changes of RV and Tent Sites: (See Rental Units for Cancellations of Rentals)
